GLENDALÉ MAYOR JERRY WEIERS HITS THE ROAD FOR VETERANS ON “GLENDALÉ TODAY”

Glendale, Ariz. — Glendale Mayor Jerry Weiers goes full throttle with the “Mayors’ Big Dog Run” motorcycle ride to benefit scholarships for veterans at Glendale Community College in his new edition of the TV show “Glendale Today”. Mayor Weiers teamed up with Glendale Community College for the April 19th motorcycle rally and ride from the campus through six West Valley cities, including an exciting drive down the runway at Luke Air Force Base and around the inside of University of Phoenix Stadium, with an after party in the Westgate Entertainment District.

Viewers will hear from the Dean of Glendale Community College North Campus, Charles Jeffrey, on how the Veterans Spirit of National Service Scholarship Fund helps veterans and their families who may be in need, get an education. More than 300 riders took part in the event, raising more than $6,600 for the scholarship fund.

The show begins airing May 2 at 8 p.m. “Glendale Today” is produced by staff from the city-owned TV station Glendale 11. The show will air daily on Glendale 11 as well as online via the city’s video library at www.glendaleaz.com/video and exclusive segments can be found on the city’s YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/MyGlendale11.
